Criminal Convictions

If you have relevant criminal convictions, enter a tick in the box.

Relevant criminal convictions are only those convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them.

If you are applying for a course in health, social work or a course involving work with children or vulnerable adults, you must enter tick in the box if you have any criminal convictions, including spent sentences and cautions (including verbal cautions) and bindover orders.
