SECTION 7: Disability

You have the right not to disclose your disability or to request that the existence or nature of your disability be treated as strictly confidential and therefore not shared with relevant staff across the college. However if your disability impacts upon professional fitness to train/practice standards you are personally responsible for disclosing relevant information about your disability in line with professional accreditation requirements.

The college is committed to making reasonable adjustments to enable students with disabilities to participate fully on the course and in student life. This is most effective when the college is informed of a student's disabilities prior to enrolment, particularly where it is anticipated that because of their disability/ies, the student may face difficulties meeting competence standards and/or professional requirements of the course.¹ If you would like to have a confidential discussion with a member of the college's Disability Advisory Service to understand the demands and professional requirements of the course, concerns about your disability or health problems and whether you are likely to require adjustments and the type of adjustments available, please confirm in the box below.

Do you consider yourself to have a disability(ies)?
Do you consider yourself to have a health problem(s) that may affect your ability to complete the course?
Please set out details of your disability(ies) or health problem(s).

Notes for mentors

Initial Teacher Education programmes require that every trainee teacher is supported by a subject specialist mentor. This includes setting regular times to work with your mentee and carrying out a minimum of two observations of the mentee during their teacher training. You will need to attend training if you are a new mentor. We very much appreciate your contribution to your mentee's development as a teacher and hope that you find it a mutually beneficial arrangement.

What does being a mentor involve?

1. Participate in mentor training and subject specialist observation training at the college.
2. Work with your mentee during their course to support their induction into the institution /department and advise them on materials, lesson planning, schemes of work and assessment.
3. Discuss subject specific issues and teaching strategies.
4. Set times for regular meetings with your mentee. Your mentee will keep a record of these meetings in their log.
5. Carry out one subject specialist observation per year for part time trainees, or two for full time trainees.
6. Attend mentor meetings during the year to support the process.

Appendix 4

Trainee Conduct and Professionalism Agreement

You are embarking on a course of professional training and need to behave as a professional throughout your course. For part of the time you are a teacher (in your placement setting and while teaching) and for part of the time you are a student (whilst attending your course). However, the professional standards expected of you apply consistently and are higher than if you were on many other courses. You are also required to comply with the regulations and expectations for conduct of the university, the college and your placement institution.

You therefore need to read and agree to the following (you will sign this at the start of your course):

1. I agree to comply with the code of professional practice and all relevant professional standards – see links below.
2. I understand that I am expected to attend the whole course. Absence from the course could jeopardise my chances of successfully meeting the assessment criteria.
3. I will give my tutor and mentor advance notice of and reasons for any reasonable absence from my teaching practice or input sessions.
4. I understand that if I am absent because of illness or some unavoidable reason, it is my responsibility to make up the work I have missed.
5. I am aware that on my placement I am representing the college and the teaching profession, and that my conduct and behaviour reflects on them as well as on me.
6. I will arrive on time to all my teaching practice and course input sessions.
7. I will arrive at all my teaching practice lessons fully prepared, with a completed session plan and all my materials and equipment.
8. I will be responsible for all college/placement materials and equipment used in the teaching practice classroom/workshop and for their safe storage.
9. I will be responsible for maintaining registers for the sessions I teach.
10. I will not arrive at my teaching practice or course sessions under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
11. I will dress appropriately for all my teaching practice sessions, following the dress code of my placement setting.
12. I will show respect to students, staff and fellow course members regardless of race, religion, politics, sexual orientation or gender.
13. I will work co-operatively with my mentor and other tutors to plan, maintain records, collect and mark students' work and prepare for examinations.
14. I will behave respectfully and quietly when observing other teachers' classes and respect confidentiality.
15. I understand that I need to maintain a professional personal internet presence and will adhere to the UCLan partnership social networking guidelines and those of my placement.
16. I understand that I may only record input sessions with the prior permission of the tutor, and that this recording may only be used for personal academic purposes.
17. I will obtain informed consent from my learners before audio or video recording my own teaching (see course handbook).
18. I accept that this list is non-exhaustive and I agree to comply with further requirements providing they are reasonable and within the conduct and/or standards expected of a teacher.
